

zhb notebook – Terms of use

PERSONAL DATA

- When the notebook shuts down, all personal data and settings are automatically deleted. This applies equally to restarts or system crashes.
- Please ensure to save your personal data on your own storage media (e.g., flash drive, cloud storage, email) to prevent any potential data loss.

BORROWING AND RETURNING

- Before this notebook was handed to you, it was inspected for any damage. If you discover any defects during its use, please report them immediately to the library staff.
- By borrowing a notebook, you agree to handle it with care and use it solely for its intended purpose.
- Notebooks may only be borrowed for the duration of the respective opening day. They must be returned no later than 15 minutes before the information desk closes.

UTILIZATION

- The notebook may only be used within the library premises.
- The installation of software and adjustments to program settings are permitted, provided they do not infringe upon the rights of third parties.
- Pre-installed software may not be copied or transferred to personal storage media.
- Modifications or manipulations of the hardware are strictly prohibited.
- Use of the notebook for criminal or unlawful purposes is forbidden.
- Mutual respect ensures a pleasant and undisturbed environment for everyone in the library. Please avoid any form of disturbance while using the notebook.
- Transferring the notebook to third parties is not allowed.

LIABILITY

- In the event of negligent or intentional damage to or loss of the notebook, the borrower may be held liable.
- The Lucerne Central Library (ZHB Luzern) disclaims any liability for damages arising from the use of the notebook or due to technical defects.
