I hereby confirm that the publication of my dissertation has been authorised by the University of Lucerne in accordance with the applicable study and examination regulations and doctoral degree regulations and that the attached electronic version corresponds to the version accepted for publication.

- - I hereby grant the Lucerne Central and University Library (ZHB Luzern) the right to store the submitted document and the associated metadata electronically, to convert it into a current data format if necessary, to make it accessible via electronic data networks and to disseminate it. This right includes the right of the Lucerne Central Library to produce and store printed copies for archiving purposes and to pass on the document and the associated metadata in printed and electronic form to third parties for library and archiving purposes.
- I hereby confirm that the rights of third parties do not prevent the deposit, publication and accessibility via LORY. I have informed the ZHB Luzern of any publication of the dissertation that may have taken place and have attached information on the (publishing) contract. In the event of any alleged or actual legal obstacles arising, I assure you that I will inform the ZHB Lucerne immediately.
- I have taken note of the "General conditions for the use of and cooperation regarding LORY", which also apply here:
