

Work Stations for MA-Students

Students at the University of Lucerne and the Lucerne College of Education who are writing their master's thesis now have access to 25 work stations in the study room 1.A04 on the 1st floor of the library. The work stations are subject to the following terms and conditions of use:

- Work places can be used for ten months from the date of issue of the authorization card (issued at the circulation desk). Earlier returns of the authorization cards are possible at any time. The period of use cannot be extended. If capacities are not exhausted, a new application can be submitted after the authorization card has been returned. The authorization card is treated as a lending object and is thus subject to the terms and conditions of use of the library.
- For research purposes, books, journals and other media from the library can be taken into the study room. Unless these materials have been borrowed for the use at home, they must be placed, by closing time, on the book trolleys provided by the library. Users are not assigned specific work stations and must therefore leave their stations empty whenever they leave the library.
- These terms and conditions of use are effective in addition to the provisions of the Lucerne Central and University Library Regulations and the House Rules of the building. In the case of a violation of said provisions, the right of use can be revoked with immediate effect. Users are liable for any damage they may cause.

Work Stations for MA-Students

Students at the University of Lucerne and the Lucerne College of Education who are writing their master's thesis now have access to 25 work stations in the study room 1.A04 on the 1st floor of the library. The work stations are subject to the following terms and conditions of use:

- Work places can be used for ten months from the date of issue of the authorization card (issued at the circulation desk). Earlier returns of the authorization cards are possible at any time. The period of use cannot be extended. If capacities are not exhausted, a new application can be submitted after the authorization card has been returned. The authorization card is treated as a lending object and is thus subject to the terms and conditions of use of the library.
- For research purposes, books, journals and other media from the library can be taken into the study room. Unless these materials have been borrowed for the use at home, they must be placed, by closing time, on the book trolleys provided by the library. Users are not assigned specific work stations and must therefore leave their stations empty whenever they leave the library.
- These terms and conditions of use are effective in addition to the provisions of the Lucerne Central and University Library Regulations and the House Rules of the building. In the case of a violation of said provisions, the right of use can be revoked with immediate effect. Users are liable for any damage they may cause.
